6 Eighteen artists from the Connecticut River Chapter of 7 Vermont Watercolor Society are exhibiting their work at All Souls
8 Church, 29 South St., through Nov. 30. The public is invited to a 9 reception Friday, Nov. 21, from 3 to 6 p.m.

10 With more than 240 members, the Vermont Watercolor 11 Society is dedicated to promoting the awareness and appreciation of watercolor to its membership at all levels of ability and to the 12 larger community by providing opportunities and venues for 13 participation, education, fellowship, and exhibitions, according 14 to their website.

15 The Connecticut River Chapter comprises more than 80
16 artists from regions of Vermont and New Hampshire that 17 surround the southern segment of the Connecticut River. This 18 exhibit features more than 30 original watercolors from 18 artists.

19 Beverages and light refreshments will be served. The 20 reception is free and open to all. The exhibit is open to view on 21 Sundays from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

22 For more information and exhibit hours, email
23 allsoulsvtart@gmail.com, or call 802-254-9377.
