4 Dr. Taronté Venable, certified chiropractic neurologist

5 and owner of Temple Chiropractic in Bellows Falls, is also a

6 singer-songwriter embarking on performing publicly.

7 Bellows Falls Pride is delighted to invite him to join the

8 program on Thursday, Dec. 4 at the Rockingham Free Public

9 Library, where a 12 foot by 12 foot section of the AIDS Memorial 10 Quilt will be on display from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. The event is free.

11 The quilt will be displayed in the third-floor meeting room at the 12 library, which is elevator accessible.

13 "The iconic AIDS Memorial Quilt has signified loss and 14 love like no other memorial for the last 40 years," organizers
15 wrote in a news release. Since 1985, when the quilt was 16 conceived by Cleve Jones, "it has served to provide context as a 17 teaching tool for a generation that cannot comprehend the 18 enormity of AIDS pandemic devastation in the world."

19 This year, the Quilt section will include a panel for Ron 20 Squires, who made history as Vermont's first openly gay legislator, 21 representing the towns of Guilford and Vernon. "A tireless 22 advocate, he championed legislation to ban discrimination
23 against gays and lesbians before his untimely death from AIDS-
24 related illness in 1993."

25 The day-long event focuses on the acknowledgment of 26 World AIDS Day and features several partners. The AIDS Project
27 of Southern Vermont, located in Brattleboro and Bennington, will 28 provide information and walk-in HIV/Hep C testing free of charge
29 throughout the day.

30 At 6:15 p.m., Venable will perform songs of love and loss
31 that personify the AIDS pandemic, followed by Attorney Michael 32 Haley from GLBTQ Legal Advocates and Defenders (GLAD Law), 33 at 7 p.m.

34 Haley has worked on two lawsuits challenging the 35 administration's ban on transgender military service, as well as 36 cases challenging employer discrimination against transgender 37 employees, and GLAD Law's first-in-the-nation challenge to the 38 executive order attempting to bar transgender girls from sports.
39 He has been a part of legislative efforts in both New Hampshire
40 and Vermont and will offer updates for the coming session.
