5 Next Stage Arts and Twilight Music present contemporary 6 folksinger-songwriters Antje Duvekot and Seth Glier Saturday, 7 Dec. 20, at 7:30 p.m. Together, Duvekot and Glier will create an 8 evening of storytelling, they say, "songs of heart, conscience, and 9 connection that illuminate both the inner and outer landscapes of 10 our lives."

11 Duvekot is a German-born, American-raised musician
12 whose work "is celebrated for its hard-won wisdom, dark-eyed 13 realism, and street-smart romanticism," wrote organizers in a 14 news release. "Her bi-cultural upbringing and relative newness to 15 English shape her strikingly original poetic voice, fueling the 16 powerful empathy at the center of her writing."

17 She has received top songwriting honors including the 18 Grand Prize in the John Lennon Songwriting Competition of 2000
19 and the Kerrville Folk Festival's New Folk Award and the Boston
20 Music Award for Best Folk Artist in 2006.

21 Glier — multiple-time winner of the Independent Music
22 Award, Grammy-nominated artist, multi-instrumentalist, and 23 producer — brings "a visionary voice to modern folk," organizers
24 said. "Driven by curiosity and a deep desire for human 25 connection, he uses his musical craft as a vehicle for both."

26 Glier has served as a cultural diplomat for the U.S. State
27 Department, collaborating with musicians in Ukraine, Mongolia,
28 China, and Mexico. He has shared stages with Ronnie Spector,
29 James Taylor, Ani DiFranco, and Glen Campbell, and recorded
30 with Richard Shindell, Dar Williams, and Cyndi Lauper.

31 Committed to songwriting as a force for positive change,
32 he says he has worked with students in Parkland, Florida, on the 33 "Parkland Project," co-written with soldiers at Walter Reed, and is 34 a passionate advocate for autism awareness, citing his autistic
35 brother Jamie as a profound influence.

36 Tickets are $22 in advance, $26 at the door, and $10 for 37 access to the livestream. A beer, wine, and cocktail cash bar will 38 be available. For information, call 802-387-0102. Advance tickets
39 at nextstagearts.org.
