RE: "Balint responds to the work of a skewed anti-Israel body" [Letters, Dec. 3]:

#####BEGIN TEXT#####

<sup>6</sup> genocide in Israel.

<sup>7</sup> I appreciate her voicing what so many of us know to be
<sup>8</sup> true. As someone who has supported the dream of Israel as a free
<sup>9</sup> democracy, a homeland for Jews after so many countries turned

10 the survivors of the Holocaust away, it pains me that I can no
11 longer support Israel in its current form.

12 For more than two years I've watched in horror the 13 devastation the Israeli government has perpetrated against an 14 impoverished people. I will not be placated by biased
15 publications such as the for-profit Free Press into believing the 16 propaganda spewed by Israel Prime Minister Benjamin
17 Netanyahu and his supporters.

18 I in no way support the horrific violence Hamas
19 perpetrated on Oct. 7, 2023. But the disproportionate response is 20 unacceptable. Even now, after the "ceasefire," bombing
21 continues. The U.S. must stop supporting genocide!

22 Tikkun olam. To repair the world. To love thy neighbor as 23 thy self.
