4 Brattleboro Senior Meals needs drivers

5 BRATTLEBORO — Brattleboro Senior Meals is in urgent
6 need of drivers for its Meals on Wheels program, which delivers
7 about 1,000 meals a month on 12 routes in Brattleboro, Guilford,
8 Marlboro, and Dummerston.

9 Meal drivers are needed on all days of the week. All 10 deliveries are completed between 10:15 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. For

11 more information, contact Executive Director Cynthia Fisher at 12 802-257-1236 or director@brattleboroseniormeals.org.

13 BF dinner benefits Jamaica relief efforts

14 BELLOWS FALLS — The First Baptist Church of Bellows
15 Falls, 9 Church St., will have its First Friday Dinner, a monthly 16 fundraising event, Jan. 2 from from 5 to 6:30 p.m. Proceeds from 17 this meal will benefit the ongoing disaster relief efforts in the 18 country of Jamaica.

19 The menu includes ham with scalloped potatoes,
20 broccoli, and green salad, with beverages and dessert. The 21 suggested donation is $9.

22 RFPL offers Tai Chi Walking workshop

23 BELLOWS FALLS — The Rockingham Free Public Library
24 presents a one-hour workshop on two ancient and fundamental 25 tai chi qi gong forms: tai chi walking and tai chi ruler, on 26 Saturday, Jan. 3, from 11 a.m. to noon. Both focus on developing 27 a relaxed posture and mental state, improving static and dynamic 28 balance, and practicing mindfulness.

29 Tai Chi Walking is appropriate for all levels of experience
30 in qi gong and tai chi. No special equipment is required. Smooth 31 soled shoes or socks are recommended. Light refreshments will 32 be available to share after the workshop. This event is free. For 33 more information about this and other programs, contact 802-
34 463-4270 or rockinghamlibrary.org, or stop by the library at 65
35 Westminster St.

36 Water study presented in Dover

37 DOVER — A draft version of the town of Dover Water
38 System Feasibility Study will be presented to the public on 39 Wednesday, Jan. 7, at 6 p.m. at the Dover Town Hall on Dover
40 Common, 189 Taft Brook Rd.

41 The draft results will be presented by the Dover
42 Municipal Water Task Force and Christina Haskins of the 43 Dufresne Group Consulting Engineers. Haskins is the lead

44 engineer on the study, and the Dufresne Group was awarded the 45 study contract by the town earlier this year.

46 The draft includes results of the recent townwide survey
47 of residents, voters, and property owners. The survey asked voters
48 to answer a number of questions about concepts for a water
49 system for East Dover and West Dover. Dufresne Group received
50 more than 500 responses to the survey.

51 The Jan. 7 presentation will also include potential design
52 concepts for a water system and review cost estimates, possible
53 funding sources, and options for constructing a system in multi-54 year phases. A follow-up meeting with the final water study
55 results is planned for Wednesday, Feb. 11. More information is 56 available at doververmont.com.

57 Putney library presents 'Walking the Voie de
58 Vézelay' with Howie Peterson

59 PUTNEY — Howie Peterson is a 77-year-old Putney
60 resident who loves to travel and explore, having visited six
61 continents and 44 countries so far.

62 At the Putney Public Library, 55 Main St., on Thursday,
63 Jan. 8, at 6:30 p.m., he'll share photos and stories of his travels
64 this fall when he walked about 430 miles on the Voie de Vézelay,
65 one of the Camino de Santiago routes through France.

66 "He hiked through lovely rolling countryside, stopping in 67 quaint villages and impressive cities along the way," wrote
68 organizers in a news release. "Peterson's previous library
69 presentations about his walking treks were exciting, engaging,
70 and enjoyed by all."

71 This event is free.

72 Putney Historical Society seeks board
73 members

74 PUTNEY — Additional board members are sought for the 75 Putney Historical Society (PHS), up to four. The board meets once
76 a month at 6 p.m. in the Putney Town Hall. These are volunteer
77 positions.

78       Currently, some board members catalog artifacts,
79   research the development of historic properties, and take care of 80   the collection. Other board members are interested in curation,
81   new and engaging ways to share their collection, and teaching
82   oral history. Volunteer work is not limited to these activities,
83   however, according to PHS President Tom Jamison.

84       For more information or to apply, contact the historical 85   society at putneyhistory@gmail.com or 802-387-4411. The 86   society's website (putneyhistory.us) includes many years of 87   newsletters containing articles, photos, and other news, both new 88   and old.
