6 Marlboro Music's residency series continues this month
7 with a free concert from the award-winning Formosa Quartet,
8 Wednesday, Jan. 21, at 7 p.m. in Ragle Hall on the Marlboro
9 campus, 2582 South Rd. Formosa features past Marlboro Music
10 participants — violinists David Bernat, Deborah Pae and Jasmine
Lin — and violist Matthew Cohen.

11 Now in its second season, the residency program brings 12 chamber music ensembles to Marlboro's campus throughout the 13 year for creative work and concert opportunities. Each residency
14 culminates with a free performance, in which the ensembles
15 share the results of their work with the local community.

16 The Formosa Quartet will use their residency to develop 17 a new program that includes music by Wynton Marsalis and 18 Shelley Washington, with a "Formosa Quartet Set" curated from 19 the group's collection of folk, pop, jazz, and poetry
20 arrangements.

21 Admission is free and reservations are required). To 22 reserve seats and for more information, visit
23 potashhill.org/concerts or email info@marlboromusic.org.
