4 It's finally time for us Americans to wake up to something
5 that has long been obvious to even casual observers in other 6 countries.

7 We are being governed by a madman:

8 • A madman who believes he has absolute power to act
9 out his wildest impulses regardless of our own laws or 10 international law.

11 • A madman who will stop at nothing to expand and 12 cement his power over all aspects of American life, and over 13 other countries he perceives as weak or contrary to American 14 interests — which, in his mind, are indistinguishable from his 15 own personal interests.

16 • A madman whose entire raison d'être is to punish 17 anyone who refuses to acquiesce to his lies about the 2020
18 election, about the nonexistence of climate change, or about his 19 own infallibility.

20 • A madman who lies habitually and who bullies his 21 entire party and the entire federal workforce to repeat and 22 amplify his lies.

23 • A madman with complete ignorance of and contempt
24 for science, for history, and for customs and traditions that have 25 governed sane people for centuries.

26 • A madman who has unleashed a massive federal 27 police force to round up and detain or deport millions of non-28 white people who contribute critically to our economy, not to 29 mention the communities they live in.

30 If all of this doesn't scare the hell out of us, and motivate
31 us to do something about it, then I don't know what will.

32 What specifically we can do about it in the moment is 33 up to each of us to parse out. The people who can set us back on 34 a more-sane footing are the Republicans, who control the 35 Congress. I'm not sure how to convince them to start looking out 36 for their own skins instead of Trump's.

37 One thing I'm sure of: Our predicament will get much
38 worse if this monster isn't stopped. And it will affect all of us
39 much closer to home than we'd like.
