6 On Thursdays in February at 6 p.m. at 33 Bridge Street in 7 Bellows Falls, Stage 33 Live and WOOL.fm will screen a series of classic films newly entered into the public domain.

8 The lineup of films, as described by the organizers, is as 9 follows:

10 • Feb. 5: King of Jazz, plus two cartoons featuring 11 Oswald the Lucky Rabbit. King of Jazz is a lavish series of 12 musical numbers, comedy sketches, and visual set pieces

13 showcasing the possibilities of sound cinema and color
14 filmmaking at the dawn of the 1930s. The film revels in Art Deco-15 inspired design and the use of two-color Technicolor, and 16 celebrates popular music of the era.

17 Highlights include performances by Paul Whiteman and 18 his orchestra, appearances by the Rhythm Boys (including a 19 young Bing Crosby), and a striking "Rhapsody in Blue" sequence.
20 Run time is 1 hour and 57 minutes, including a brief
21 intermission.

22 • Feb. 12: All Quiet on the Western Front (1930). A
23 German youth eagerly enters World War I, but his enthusiasm
24 wanes as he gets a firsthand view of the horror. Considered a 25 realistic and harrowing account of warfare in World War I, the 26 film opened to wide acclaim in the United States.

27 In 1990, it was selected and preserved by the Library of 28 Congress's National Film Registry, being deemed "culturally, 29 historically, or aesthetically significant." The film was the first to 30 win the Academy Awards for both Outstanding Picture and Best
31 Director, and it is the first Best Picture-winner based on a finished 32 novel. Run time is 2 hours 14 minutes, including a brief
33 intermission.

34 • Feb. 19: Hell's Angels. A feat of adventure filmmaking
35 and a testament to the audacious, spare-no-expense vision of 36 Howard Hughes, this landmark aviation epic remains
37 exhilarating. With the onset of World War I, two British brothers 38 recruited into the Royal Flying Corps find their bond tested by 39 their differing attitudes toward the war and their love for the same 40 woman (Jean Harlow in her bombshell breakthrough).

41 The product of a notoriously long and dangerous
42 production that resulted in the deaths of multiple crew members, 43 Hell's Angels broke new technical ground, making use of early 44 sound and color technologies, and capturing some of the most 45 thrilling dogfight scenes ever filmed. Runtime is 2 hours 13
46 minutes, including a brief intermission.

47 • Feb. 26: Animal Crackers and Soup to Nuts. Based on 48 the Marx Brothers' 1928 stage musical, Animal Crackers is set at 49 a Long Island society party honoring eccentric African explorer
50 Captain Jeffrey T. Spaulding (Groucho). The film serves as a
51 vehicle for the Marx Brothers' comedy and absurdist routines,
52 with a minimal plot loosely structured around the theft of a 53 valuable painting.

54 The film's humor and surrealist elements influenced 55 comedy filmmaking and earned recognition from avant-garde
56 critics and filmmakers.

57 In Soup to Nuts, Mr. Schmidt's costume store is bankrupt
58 because he spends his time on Rube Goldberg-style inventions.
59 The creditors send a young manager who falls for Schmidt's niece 60 Louise, but she'll have none of him. Schmidt's friends and some 61 goofy firemen try to help out, and things come to a slapstick head
62 when Louise needs rescuing from a fire.

63 Soup to Nuts was the film debut of the original four 64 members who would later go on to become known as The Three 65 Stooges. Running time is 2 hours 50 minutes, including a brief
66 intermission.

67 There is a $5 suggested donation at the door, but nobody 68 will be turned away for lack of money. More information about 69 this series, and other upcoming events, can be found at 70 stage33live.com.
