Notes from editor (not for publication):

Hi, Gary — I cleaned up some grammar but intended to do so gently. Please make sure I didn't misrepresent your meaning in any way. All the best, Jeff

5 What's going to differentiate Nell Mayo and Isaac Evans-6 Frantz from the other one-year candidates is that are working for 7 the benefit of our entire community — not just the business
8 community or property owners.

9 They can differentiate themselves as candidates with 10 experience serving Brattleboro. They will bring positive energy 11 and a neighborly spirit in the context of disastrous policy.

12 This is what's going to win the election and bring our 13 community's future to a more equitable, sustainable, prosperous, 14 safe, and unified town for us and generations of our young.

15 They are planting the seed of hope for a brighter future
16 and bring a stabilized balance of peace, fair justice, and 17 transparency for all and an economical and equitable unity in 18 Brattleboro's community in an already-divided, unstable society
19 across the country.

20 The next young generation needs hope, not disparity and 21 division and lack of trust and faith in our town and government.
