5 The Brattleboro Museum & Art Center (BMAC) invites 6 local educators to a mixer at the museum on Wednesday, April 8, 7 5 to 7 p.m.

8 Windham County preschool and K-12 teachers, school 9 administrators, staff, paraprofessionals, and coaches are invited to 10 stop by for a complimentary drink, free appetizers, live music, a

11 cash bar, and the opportunity to check out BMAC's six new 12 exhibits that opened on March 21.

13 Guests will also have the opportunity to see the 14 beginning stages of a sand mandala being constructed in the 15 BMAC galleries by Tibetan monk Lama Tenzin Yignyen.

16 "Much of our work at BMAC involves partnering with 17 schools and teachers, so we see firsthand how hard they work
18 and how often they go above and beyond," BMAC Manager of 19 Education Programs Kate Milliken said in a news release.

20 "Windham County educators are shaping the next generation of 21 Vermonters, and we want them to know how much we 22 appreciate them."

23 BMAC's involvement with Windham County schools and 24 teachers includes a program sending teaching artists into 17
25 Head Start classrooms, hosting dozens of school field trips to the 26 museum, serving as Vermont's statewide affiliate for the 27 Scholastic Art & Writing Awards, and offering kid-friendly
28 programs like Glasstastic, Sucka Punch Graffiti Jam, the annual 29 Domino Toppling Extravaganza, and Lego Contest & Exhibit.

30 Registration is encouraged, but walk-ins are welcome. To 31 register, visit brattleboromuseum.org or call 802-257-0124 x101.
