RE: "Conspiratorial narrative is straight out of Iran's propaganda playbook" [Letters, March 18]:

####BEGIN TEXT####

4 I'm deeply disappointed that The Commons decided to 5 print Mark Treinkman's blatant ad hominem attack on Kate Casa.

6 While Treinkman claims to decry Casa's analysis about 7 our war with Israel against Iran, the attack predictably attempts to 8 divert us away from underlying facts about the Trump
9 administration's motives and the war's impetus, which are not

10 merely widely reported to be true, but have been admitted by the 11 administration.

12 Demonizing someone with aggressive invective does
13 nothing to change that.

14 Demonizing someone with aggressive invective should 15 have been recognized as such by The Commons, despite the 16 window dressing, and it didn't deserve to see the light of 17 publication.
