5 The cast and crew of the Leland and Gray Players
6 production of She Kills Monsters gave “a terrific performance” at 7 the Vermont Regional Drama Festival hosted by Leland & Gray
8 Union High School, March 28 at Dutton Gymnasium, according 9 to Leland & Gray Theater Director Ray Chapin.
10 The show was selected to advance to the State Drama
11 Festival, and on Friday, April 10, 16 students will travel to Bellows

12 Free Academy in St. Albans to share their work with the seven 13 other state finalists.

14 The festival will be held over two days, April 10 and 11.
15 Both days, the young Leland and Gray thespians will attend 16 workshops, shows, and of course, perform their one act play, She 17 Kills Monsters.

18 The students presented a community performance of She 19 Kills Monsters at the Latchis Theatre in Brattleboro on April 7.

20 Chapin said The Players would like to thank “everyone
21 who attended the community performances and offered useful 22 feedback for polishing the show,” with special thanks for “the 23 parents and community members who worked hard all day at our 24 Regional Festival to feed and support over 80 students from four 25 different schools.”
