4 A concert to support the important work of the Vermont
5 Asylum Assistance Project (VAAP) takes place Saturday, April 18,
6 from 7 to 9 p.m., at Williamsville Hall.

7 The Seymour Sisters will be performing Americana
8 music. The band includes local musicians Beth Spicer on banjo, 9 mandolin, and guitar; Laura Bryant-Williams on vocals and 10 guitar; Kate Wolff on dobro, and Betsy Williams on upright bass.
11 Vermont State Treasurer Mike Pieciak and Molly Gray, former

12 Vermont Lieutenant Governor and previous director of the 13 Vermont Afghan Alliance, will each give brief remarks.

14 The suggested donation is $25 to $50, and all proceeds
15 will benefit VAAP, a legal services and technical assistance
16 organization that exists to mentor no-cost and low-cost
17 immigration lawyers and legal workers, educate and serve
18 Vermont immigrants and community members, maximize impact 19 across sectors, and advocate to protect immigrants' rights. It is 20 currently one of the primary organizations providing this legal 21 assistance to Vermont's immigrant neighbors.

22 Tickets will be available at the door. Payment accepted
23 via cash, check, or Venmo. There will be light refreshments
24 available. Those who can't make the concert but still want to 25 support VAAP can make checks out to "Vermont Asylum
26 Assistance Project." Mail to Betsy Williams, 1197 Westminster
27 West Rd., Putney, VT 05346.
