RE: "Searching flowers for my daughter's atoms" [Essay,

Apr. 1]:

####BEGIN TEXT####

4 Bravo to Todd Murchison for an absolutely touching
5 piece about life and death.

6 Murchison points out that no one is ever gone, they
7 simply change in death. What a comforting thought!

8 No matter how you've lost a loved one — addiction,
9 stroke, cancer, an accident, no matter — Murchison's piece gives
10 you comfort.

11 Thanks to The Commons for printing this beautiful piece
12 that transcends all that divides us. Murchison reminds us that in 13 death we are united behind our loved ones.
