5 United Way of Windham County; Supporters of 6 Democracy Grafton, VT; and the Vermont Asylum Assistance
7 Project (VAAP) will host the "Freedom for All" concert, a special 8 evening of music and advocacy Thursday, July 30, at 7 p.m. at 9 Grafton Community Church, 55 Main St.
10 Framed as both an act of resistance and a beacon of 11 hope, the concert invites the community on a musical journey

12 through opera, musical theatre, art song, and folk anthems. The 13 event will feature performances by soloists Tricia Suriani and 14 David Naughton.

15 All donations and ticket sales from the event will support
16 the work of the VAAP, which provides essential legal 17 representation and help for immigrants currently detained in 18 Vermont, ensuring they have access to fair and just legal 19 processes.

20 Tickets are $25. Due to the venue's limited seating
21 capacity, community members are encouraged to reserve tickets
22 early. To purchase tickets, donate, or for more information about 23 the event, visit unitedwaywindham.org/freedom-all-concert.
