Brattleboro's first Porch Festival will take place Saturday, July 25, from 12:30 to 5 p.m. The Porch Festival is an invitation to visit various porches and backyard venues to enjoy local music, visit, and make friends, all while raising funds for a good cause.
This year, all donations will go to Turning Point in Brattleboro.
The first stop, at 12:30 p.m., is 132 Sherwood Circle at Westgate in West Brattleboro for Jonathan Keane and New

11 Mexican Standoff, an improvisational trio playing funk and rock
12 on organ, drums, and guitar.

13 At 2:30 p.m., at 41 West St., in the “Swedeville”
14 neighborhood in Brattleboro, Andy Davis offers original songs
15 and tunes on accordion and piano.

16 The day concludes at 4 p.m., at 7 Chase St. near the 17 town common, with Monkeys Up the Sleeve, a trio featuring 18 Hanna Moors, Dave Cohen, and Rolf Parker that plays (mostly)
19 original songs they’ve created at their weekly practice jams.

20 Admission is by free will offering. Bring a lunch or a 21 snack; travel on foot, by bike, car, or bus. For more information, 22 including directions to the venues, go to bit.ly/874-porch.
