RE: "Our disturbing dissonance" [Column, Jun. 10]:

####BEGIN TEXT####

Elaine Clift believes illegal immigrants are just looking for a better life. Yet I bet Clift would not welcome a stranger who entered through her unlocked door, nor would she say that because the stranger's only crime was entering her home uninvited, she would pay to clothe, feed, and house that stranger. Yet she wants "the community" to do just that.

Let's admit that sanctuary cities protect illegal immigrants who commit crimes by refusing to hand said criminals over to

12 ICE. Illegal immigrants have bludgeoned, stabbed, and raped
13 people; they have participated in drug and human trafficking.
14 They have unsafely operated semi trucks and killed our citizens
15 on our roads.

16 Further, if you state we “need” illegal immigrants to do
17 certain jobs, then you can’t say you’re for a “living” minimum
18 wage. Illegal immigrants often work for less than minimum wage
19 because they are forced to. Do we support this?

20 Thankfully, ICE is doing its job, taking illegals off our
21 streets, out of our jobs, out of our schools and our housing.
22 Simply put, because illegal immigrants are unknown and may be
23 criminals, illegal immigration isn’t tolerated in any nation,
24 including the USA.
